

LANIVET PANDAS NETBALL PLAYERS

CODE OF CONDUCT

Lanivet Pandas Netball Club has adopted a set of Mandatory and Enforceable Codes of Conduct for all players, coaches, parents and spectators to ensure that they behave and promote the best possible environment. All players, coaches and officials, parents, supporters and committee members have a responsibility at all times when attending sessions or representing the Lanivet Pandas to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner consistent with these values.

HONESTY

Always play the game in the right spirit and play to the laws of the game. Be honest in your behaviour and show kindness to our wide range of ages, fitness and ability to safeguard all our players. Play for enjoyment and to improve your skills.

RELATIONSHIPS

Pledge to foster good relationships with players, other coaches, umpires and all Pandas through good communication, honesty, kindness and empathy.

RESPECT

Show respect to the game, its officials, coaches, opposition, your team-mates, your environment, yourself and all others involved in the game. Give yourself an opportunity to learn from the game. Never argue with an umpire or any other official. Without these people you cannot play netball.

PANDA FAMILY

Be a club player. We are a #Pandafamily; please treat it that way. Treat all players, volunteers, and coaches as you would like to be treated. Co-operate and

HUMILITY

Be gracious in defeat and modest in winning. Support your team-mates, celebrate their success and support them in times of challenge.

COMMITMENT

Have positive body language even when things are hard. Always play for the Panda ethos. Be the best person you can be at all times and never show aggression in any session/match on or off the court.

ROLE MODEL

Set a professional example when preparing and working with teams, players, and coaches in a manner when representing the Pandas. Be a positive role model for netball by acting in a way that projects a positive image within netball by being fair, considerate and honest with fellow players, officials and volunteers.

respect the office of Chair, all umpires, team-mates, and players. Look out for one another; never be abusive or show negative body language.
